

ASTROTAGGING BOTS AND CITIZEN SCIENTISTS

A LECTURE BY:

FIONA ROMEO AND NATASHA WATERSON

ROYAL OBSERVATORY, GREENWICH

MONDAY 8TH MARCH 2010, 4PM - 6PM

BEN PIMLOTT LECTURE THEATRE, GOLDSMITHS

Fiona has a background in producing community platforms and multiplayer games for the BBC and Disney. Natasha studied science communication and developed exhibitions at the Science Museum. Their recent projects, Astronomy Photographer of the Year and Solar Stormwatch, are developing the Observatory's first online community, with spin-off exhibits, planetarium shorts, and events. Fiona and Natasha will talk about the challenges of designing distributed experiences for astronomy enthusiasts that play against the context of the Observatory's historic site.
